Alondra Club Hosts Southland Golfers

More than 140 women golfers from over the southland gathered at the Alondra Club Monday to participate in the seventh annual invitational tournament staged by the Alondra Park Women's Golf Club.

This is the major event sponsored by the Women's Golf Club throughout the year.

On arrival members and guests were served coffee and doughnuts and were presented with "tee gifts" before play.

Beginning at 8:30 a.m. the tournament lasted until mid-afternoon when awards were presented at a buffet luncheon.

Mrs. Lawrence McBee, president of the Alondra Club, was general chairman of this year's "Fairway Frolics." Mrs. Wayne Shostrom, tournament chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Bill Worley and Mrs. Morgan Simmons.

Serving on the arrangements committee were Meses. Robert McDannold, Gerald King, Art Teien, Newell Larson, Ken Edwards, Raymond Dowd and Leland Porter.

Tournament winners were: low gross, Mrs. Ed Wills, Alondra, 82; second low gross, Mrs. Vera Holden, Rancho, 83; third low gross, Esa Patch, Griffith Park, 86; fourth low gross, Jackie Burchard, Griffith Park, 86; low net, Florence Horn, Palos Verdes, 69; second low net, Shirley Bush, Riviera, 70; third low net, Bernice Shostrom, Alondra, 71; fourth low net, Dorris Reese, Los Verdes, 72.

Mrs. Don Lindberg and Mrs. Vera Golden tied for the longest drive, 225 yards. Mrs. Newell Larson won the drive-from-tee-to-hole, driving her ball to 9 inches from the 8 hole.

CART RIDE ON FAIRWAY

Riding to the next hole can be exciting especially when the driver decides to check her score card. On such a ride are, from left, front seat, Meses. Fred Meck and Jack Harvey, Sepulveda Women's Golf Club; Mrs. Paul Wierk, Fox Hills Club, driver of the cart; back seat, Meses. Richard Pearl, Rancho Club, and Jack Colby, Fox Hills.

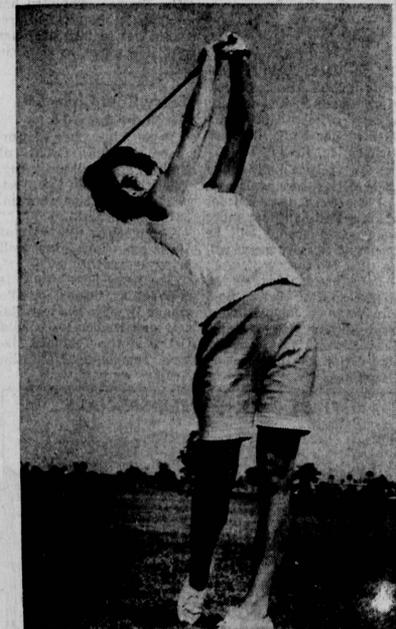

TROPHY WINNER

Her drive from the tee, putting her ball nine inches from the 8 hole, won a trophy for Mrs. Newell Larson of Torrance, member of the Alondra Club.

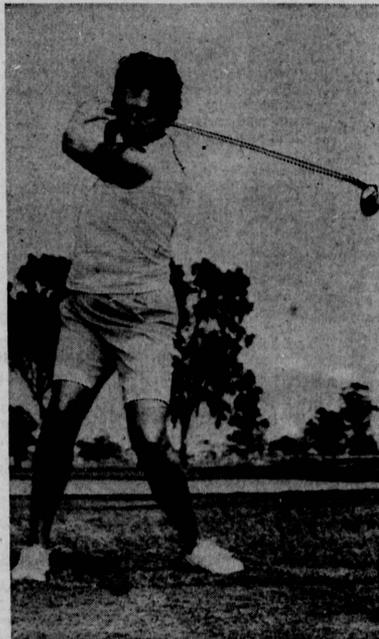

SKILLFUL PUTTING

Mrs. Robert McDannold takes a good look at the position of her ball in preparation for a putt as, from left, Meses. Robert L. Golden, Walter G. White and Miss Gloria Wilcox look on.

LONGEST DRIVE

Tournament honors for the longest drive, 225 yards, were shared by two champions. Here, Mrs. Don Lindberg makes her drive.
